

CHARLIE CORBETT WEDS

Mr. Charlie Corbett, of Memphis, Tenn., and Miss Florence Signaigo, of the same city, were united in marriage last Wednesday morning. Mr. Corbett was born and reared in this city, where he has many friends and relatives, who will be interested to learn of his marriage.

In describing the wedding the Memphis News Scimitar says:

"An impressive ceremony was the marriage of Miss Florence Signaigo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Signaigo, and Mr. Charles Joseph Corbett, which took place at Sacred Heart church Wednesday morning at 8:30 o'clock. Rev. Father Mahoney officiated.

During the assembling of the guests Miss Elsa Gerber sang "O Promise Me."

The bride was gowned in accordance with the latest fashion, with a bodice of Chantilly lace veiled in chiffon, and her veil was caught in a bandeau of real orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of Bride roses and valley lilies.

Miss Mildred Osterloh, gowned in pink crepe de chine, with the bodice of point lace, wearing a white Milan hat, and carrying pink Killarney roses, served as the bride's only attendant, and Mr. Richard Regan attended the bridegroom as best man.

The parents of the bride tendered a wedding breakfast in their home on Poplar avenue immediately following the ceremony, after which Mr. and Mrs. Corbett left for a Northern trip, the latter traveling in a suit of blue gabardine with hat and accessories in harmony. On their return they will be at home at 1078 Greenlaw avenue."

FOLLOWING SUGGESTION

Many Property Owners Have Cut Weeds and Thoroughly Cleaned Up Premises.

Last week we had an article urging the people to clean up their premises, cut the weeds and white-wash their fences. In going over the city the first of the week we have had our attention called to the fact that many people followed the suggestion given. We are sure everyone wants their premises clean and sanitary and it will surprise you how little time it will take to have them put in that condition.

VERY HIGH PRICES PAID

Good Crowd of Buyers Present from Central Kentucky Counties Here Monday.

Quite a good crowd in the city Monday and the most orderly one we have ever witnessed on a County Court Day. If there were any drunken men on the streets the writer failed to see them. The stores all seemed to be doing nicely.

Fully 3,000 cattle were on the market with some good stuff in the offering. Trade brisk and prices out of sight. When feeders are weighed up at 8 cents it means that prices are close to the danger line. The best 800-pound steers sold at 8 cents, and 7 1/2 cents was common. Yearlings at 7 to 7 1/2 for the best. Heifers at 6 1/2 to 7 cents, with one bunch of extra ones at $7.40, a price that we never saw before on this market for stockers. Cows at $6 to $6.75 for the best; 5 1/2 to 6 cents for bulk of sales. Old cows and rough oxen at 4 to 5 cents. Bulls at 5 to 6 cents. Good crowd at the pens and all Central Kentucky had good buyers for all desirable stock. A great many sales made during the day and the bulk of sales were by the head, making it difficult to catch many sales.

Men of Mt. Sterling

When a good salesman goes out after business, he first puts on a clean collar and gets his shoes shined. Then he looks like more business—and he's made a flying start toward getting it.

Likewise, a community can go after more business—and get it. The "clean collar and shiny shoes" of this town are the well-painted stores, the bright, cheery homes, the fresh, clean-looking buildings. The part paint plays in building up local pride cannot be put in figures—but its good effects are recorded on the local merchants' sales sheets. Buy good paint. We recommend and sell

GOOD SPEECH

Mr. McChesney made the "rousing" speech that Pembroke has heard in some days. He is a man of firm convictions and not afraid to champion a great cause that has not yet received, but will soon receive, its proper recognition.

May God speed the day when we will have many men in politics like Hon. H. V. McChesney, who thinks about and talks about our part in this great temperance question. They say we must put this whisky question out of politics. We say so too—but we say put it out the McChesney way.

Hurrah for McChesney for Governor of Kentucky. —Pembroke Journal.

The colored parson was preaching on modern improvements, and yelled: "We want street cars dat run twenty miles an houh." "Praise de Lawd," came from the amen corner. "We want automobiles dat run fifty miles an houh." "Praise de Lawd." "We has arplanes dat goes a thousn' miles an houh." "Great Gawd!"

Many of our public men are discouraging learnedly on the German situation, and—saying nothing.

BE A BUILDER, AND NOT A DESTROYER

Being the second of a series of
City Development Articles
Written Expressly for this Paper.

(By Major F. W. Barber.)

Are you a builder, or are you a destroyer?

Are you seeking to advance the interests of the community in which you live, or are you diverting your efforts to its ultimate destruction?

It is one or the other, for there is no happy medium.

You are either a benefit to the city, or you are a detriment.

You are either a builder, or you are a destroyer, and the responsibility rests with you.

Others know you as you are, but do you know yourself?

Every city has within its borders many excellent people who want to see their community advance and keep pace with the rest of the world.

They want a larger and better city, a more prosperous farming community, more gold in the pockets of every citizen, and they labor unceasingly to this end. They are good citizens, and the great mass of the populace rates them as good citizens.

They are Builders; But often the most persistent efforts of the builders are more than overshadowed by the other class—the destroyers.

A destroyer can undo in a day what it takes a builder a year to accomplish.

And destroyers are legion.

They travel in all walks of life and are exceedingly active.

You find them among the rich property owners, the landed proprietors, the business and professional man, the mechanic and the farmer. You find them everywhere.

They do not realize that they are destroyers—but they are.

Many rich men and landed proprietors are opposed to all forms of public improvement because they fear it will increase the amount of their taxes.

As their eyes are firmly fixed upon the tax list, they lose sight of the fact that public improvements that increase the tax roll slightly likewise increase property values immensely.

They oppose improvements, and thereby become destroyers, placing the tremendous weight of their hostile influence in opposition to the advancement of the community.

Then there is a certain class of men who carry around a load of grouch which they let loose upon every possible occasion and without regard for their victims.

They damn the town, and the people, and everything and everybody but themselves.

The Camel of Extravagance has absolutely no chance of passing through the eye of the Needle of Success. EXTRAVAGANCE means WASTE, and waste is the

To mention civic improvement to them is like shaking a red rag at a mad bull.

They rave at all times and at everybody, and their ravings travel on wings, and grow, and penetrate every section of the country.

And then there is still another class that comes along with their contributions to the downfall of their community. They are the patrons of the mail order man—the world's greatest enemy of the small city community.

Many of these people utilize the local stores when they want something in a hurry or on credit, and then send the bulk of their cash away to the great cities. They give the mail order man the ripe ear of corn and toss the husks to the local merchant.

They, too, are destroyers, and are daily throttling the community which shelters them—the community which they should foster and encourage in every way, for without the close proximity of the local stores and the market place for their farmers and other property would be worth far less than its present value.

These are just a very few of the many ways in which a community may be destroyed—in which THIS community IS being destroyed every day.

CLIPPINGS FROM THE SNAGTOWN TORCHLIGHT

THE REPUBLICANS AND THE LIQUOR ISSUE

No claim by the Kentucky Republicans that they are entitled to credit for the passage of the county unit bill will carry weight.

The Republicans pledged themselves to the county unit bill in 1907 and elected their State ticket.

The Legislature was Democratic by a narrow margin, and the Republicans sidetracked the county unit bill and elected Mr. Bradley, Republican, United States Senator with the aid of whisky Democrats.

Some Republicans voted for the county unit bill in the Legislature of 1912, but that measure was introduced, engineered and adopted by Democrats.

The county unit bill is a Democratic measure. It embodies the true Democratic principle of home rule.

The men now in charge of the Republican party are men who opposed the county unit law until the Democratic party had made that measure a law.—Louisville Post.

NOW HER FRIENDS HARDLY KNOW HER

But This Does Not Bother Mrs. Burton, Under the Circumstances.

Houston, Texas.—In an interesting letter from this city, Mrs. S. C. Burton writes as follows: "I think it is my duty to tell you what your medicine, Cardui, the woman's tonic, has done for me.

I was down sick with womanly trouble, and my mother advised several different treatments, but they didn't seem to do me any good. I lingered along for three or four months, and for three weeks, I was in bed, so sick I couldn't bear for any one to walk across the floor.

My husband advised me to try Cardui, the woman's tonic. I have taken two bottles of Cardui, am feeling fine, gained 15 pounds and do all of my housework. Friends hardly know me, I am so well."

If you suffer from any of the ailments so common to women, don't allow the trouble to become chronic. Begin taking Cardui to-day. It is purely vegetable, its ingredients acting in a gentle, natural way on the weakened womanly constitution. You run no risk in trying Cardui. It has been helping weak women back to health and strength for more than 50 years. It will help you. At all dealers.

THE REPUBLICAN CONVENTION

The recent Republican Convention ended as was generally predicted and so complete was the control of the liquor interests that all candidates for Governor withdrew in favor of Mr. Morrow, who is admittedly as wet (to use an expression used last year, in introducing one Democratic candidate, if our information is correct), "as a mud turtle". As a matter of fact neither Mr. Morrow nor his platform will fool anybody. The County Unit Law was introduced and pushed through the Legislature by Democrats and any attempt upon the part of the Republican party to claim credit for it will fail.

The other planks of the platform, were, in the main, but a repetition of old platitudes, the usual denunciation of everybody—Democrats in particular—and a general "rattle of dry bones."

THE FRANK CASE

There was more than enough doubt about Leo Frank's guilt to make the action of Gov. Slaton highly proper. The fact that he was convicted on the testimony of an irresponsible negro who confessed having been a party to the crime, after telling several conflicting stories, coupled with of this character, put his guilt in doubt and every man charged with crime is entitled to the benefit of the doubt. That is the grandest principle of our jurisprudence. It is far better that a dozen guilty men escape, than that one innocent man be hanged.

CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY

One of the most delightful and enjoyable occasions was a reception given last Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mr. J. Green Trimble, Sr., on East Main street, in honor of his ninety-second birthday. The hours were from 3 to 5 o'clock, and during that time about one hundred guests called to pay their respects to Mr. Trimble's grand old man, and to extend him best wishes for continued good health, and many happy birthday occasions. Refreshments were served. The home was decorated with plants and ferns. Those assisting in entertaining were Misses Ella Trimble, Mary Ray Trimble, Mrs. A. M. Bourne, Mrs. B. W. Trimble, Mrs. S. R. Adamson, Mrs. Nannie Kash, Mrs. Belle Miller and Miss Josephine Turner, of Paris, Ill., and Miss Daisy Macklin, of Hazel Green. A birthday dinner was given at noon at which the family and a few intimate friends were present. Mr. Trimble received and entertained his guests and was assisted in the receiving line by his brother, Frank Trimble, of Memphis, Tenn., and his niece, Mrs. Charles B. Nelson, of Winchester.

MUSIC DISCONTINUED

It was learned last week that owing to the financial condition of the Mt. Sterling High School it will be necessary to do away with the department of music at the school the coming year. Miss Ethel Ferguson, head of the department, had greatly improved the musical education of the young people at the school.

EXCLUSIVE PRODUCTION RIGHTS

In connection with the coming of "The Servant in the House" to the Redpath Chautauqua here, it is of interest that the Redpath Bureau holds the exclusive rights for the production of this play in both the Lyceum and Chautauqua in the United States and Canada. The Redpath pays a large royalty for these production rights. Charles Rann Kennedy, the author of the play, will personally assist Mr. William Owen in coaching the cast.

Crops of all kinds are growing fine, in spite of the weeds. Stripping grass seed is over. The crop was a light one after all. "Uncle" Robt. Craig, of Owingsville, came last week to visit relatives. The prohibition cause seems to be advancing rapidly. The bitterest foes of local option years ago are

C. N. SQUIRES AND MISS MARGARET EVANS WED

A surprise wedding occurred at Little Rock, in Bourbon county, last Tuesday afternoon, when Miss Margaret Evans, of Mt. Sterling, became the bride of C. N. Squires, of Shelby county. The bride has been a member of the faculty of the Little Rock Graded School, being the assistant principal and teacher of mathematics and Latin. Until last year she resided at Little Rock, but removed to Mt. Sterling with her mother, continuing however, to teach at Little Rock.

The bridegroom is a son of the late James Squires, and was reared near Little Rock, but a short time ago purchased a farm in Shelby county.

The young couple motored from Mt. Sterling and were married at the home of the officiating minister, the Rev. Carl Agee, at 4:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon.

The bride was handsome in a dark blue traveling suit. After a brief wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Squires will return to their home in Shelby county.
